SSI News & Views:

Thank you for your interest in Strategic Systems Inc.

We welcome you the the first of a new series of bi-monthly newsletters. Here in these pages we will inform, entertain, and involve our current and prospective customers in what is new at SSI and around the training community. We'll also invite and post questions from you about our products as well.

Customer Q&A:

Q: I tried a known good hit sensor on our new targets and no hits registered during testing...help? - John C. Ft Knox UAC

A: John, with the new series of TLDs it is required to connect any peripherals the the target before turning the power on, this will fix your problem, refer to page 42 of your manual great question! - Daniel, SSI

Q: Are SSI's products in the GSA schedule? - general quest.

A: YES, RIAB and other SSI products are on GSA Advantage
